Description

A woman (U.S. government) holds a blue and red robe (assistance) in front of her in the act of wrapping it around the shoulders of a young boy (needy) who stands directly in front of her. The boy is wearing a blue short-sleeve shirt and is holding a baby swaddled in a white blanket; he gazes downward at the baby. The background features mountains, people, and buildings all painted in a sand color. A white banner with the words "Government Aid for the Needy" spans the bottom of the image.
