

The Voice of Sipapu (The Kiva)

Date

1935

Primary Maker

Will Shuster

Medium

fresco

Description

Single male figure crouches in lower right corner in front of "sipapu"; in the background is a wall painting representing elements of Pueblo celestial mythology. There are symbols for the sun, moon and stars, and two "avanyus", feathered serpents, male sky deities who bring rain.

Dimensions

67 3/4 x 47 in. (172.1 x 119.4 cm)