Untitled Landscape with Puma and Deer

Date

1992-1993

Primary Maker

Fred W. Spencer

Medium

oil on canvas

Description

At the lower left corner a river flows down the side of a mesa into the valley below. At the lower right corner is a small rocky outcropping with a wild cat crouched behind it; the cat is stalking the deer in central right mid-ground. The deer looks toward the outcrop and the viewer. Two large trees are featured along the right side. A large mesa can be seen in the left background and the valley floor is covered in bright green grass. The background sky is filled with large fluffy clouds
