Talpa Winter

Date

1966

Primary Maker

Andrew Dasburg

Medium

oil on Masonite

Description

A winter scene of a small New Mexico village. In the central background are a group of very angular shaped adobe houses that clustered close together. A single telephone pole stands adjacent to the homes in the left background. The right side of the image appears to be a snow covered road and a sloping hill side. The background sky is gray with a stormy appearance.
