Description

Four men and two children are depicted in the front row as they all sing. The man with glasses on the far left looks on as he holds his hat in his hands. The men in the middle share a songbook as they sing. The two children on the right sing as one looks directly at the camera and the other looks on to the book that the gentleman on the right is holding. Three women are on the second row. The unidentified woman on the left is not visible but has her arms crossed. The other two women share a songbook and look onto it as they sing. Two men behind them share a songbook as one looks onto it and the other looks at something behind him.
