

Plate 74: Contribución del pueblo a la Expropiación Petrolera (from the portfolio Estampas de la Revolución Mexicana)

Date

printed 1947

Primary Maker

Francisco Mora

Medium

linocut

Description

The contribution of the people when Lázaro Cárdenas announced that oil found in Mexico belonged to the country and not the foreign companies. Top image shows the oil fields with the derricks flying the Mexican Flag. Below image has a city in the background and people in the foreground placing money, sewing machines, etc. on tables.