Description

The image is composed of exterior plywood walls. The wall in the foreground has two American flags hanging,
