Description

The dog in the fore ground has its body facing the viewers right with the head turned to face directly at the viewer. The dog has a pointed face and long dark ears. All of the body is shadowed to represent dog hair, including the face, with the exception of around the eyes. That area is totally white showing no shadowing. The background contains a horse in the viewer's right corner facing the viewers left. There is an image of a mouse face above the horse and above the mouse is the image of a man. The total background is very busy.
