

Basic Detail Report

Cyan #382

Date

2009

Primary Maker

James Marshall

Medium

glazed stoneware

Description

A long object with an ellipse-shaped base, featuring a mint green crystalline glaze that is reminiscent of a battleship or boat rudder. Glaze crystals dot the surface, creating a variegated depth on the surface. One end of the sculpture features a slit or cut out, which one can peer through. The end of the sculpture with the cut-out slips upward into a plateau. All corners and edges are defined yet rounded.

Dimensions

16 1/2 × 37 × 5 in. (41.9 × 94 × 12.7 cm)