Medium

Hand painted wood

Description

Sculptural montage of six wooden carved owls perched upon a stand of curlicue branches, three free standing figures: an owl, pelican, and figure of St. Anthony. The owls vary in size but are all painted with the same color scheme (maroon bodies with black and white detail, eyes of yellow, blue, green, and black, and feet of orange). The branch-like perch has a stand beneath it of black, purple, goldish-tan and silver.
