Description

Scene of a woman in black standing on a path in front of several gray stone or red brick buildings with orange roofs. There is a path that begins lower center and right which leads behind a stone wall. The central building has two windows with green shutters and a slightly arched doorway between the windows. There is low growing green, yellow and brown bushes on either side of the path, and behind the bushes on the left is a green field, which is mostly hidden from view. The woman has an ankle length black dress on and is wearing a white scarf on her head. She is standing facing the viewer with her hands on her hips.
