

Basic Detail Report

Untitled (Parrot Relief)

Date

circa 1960

Primary Maker

Eugenie F. Shonnard

Medium

keenstone, paint

Description

Keenstone relief of a bird, possible a parrot. The bird has its back to the viewer so both folded wings are visible, it has five tail feathers and some feathers sticking up on its head like a crest. The head is turned to the right and seen in profile. The background is turquoise and the surface has a rough texture. Pencil lines are visible through the paint.

Dimensions

12 1/2 × 6 3/4 × 1 3/4 in. (31.8 × 17.1 × 4.4 cm)