Description

Matted watercolor of a path through a forest. The s-shaped path originates at the lower right corner and disappears on the left side about up the height of the image. The grass around the path is dark green, with strips of brighter green lining the path on both sides. There is a medium-tan bush in the lower left corner and a tall tree with red leaves growing just to the left of the bush. The background suggests a forest painted in dark green and purple. The entire surface of the image and mat are covered by a sheet of clear, reflective plastic or vinyl.
