Primary Maker Leopoldo Méndez

Medium

linocut

Description

On the left side is a larger-than life image of a businessman wearing sunglasses and pointing his finger at a sword wielding solider on horseback in the central foreground. The man holds a large sign that says "Charles Conant Sondra & Smalda Irrigation CO". The solider raises his sword in the air and is about to bring it down on a man who is falling back onto a fence. In the distance people are being shepherded away.
