Description

A street scene is depicted with Pueblo construction workers in the foreground and background lifting pillars at the center of the street. Another man squats outside of a yellow house pouring sand into a trough. Two Pueblo women, one holding a baby wrapped in a blanket, walk towards the center of the painting from the right-hand side. They wear long skirts and shawls and have a large white saddled horse with them. Mesas and an airplane are depicted far off in the background.
