

Basic Detail Report

Miniature Etchings of the Southwest

Date

circa 1930

Primary Maker

Will Shuster

Medium

Etchings on paper mounted on cardboard with glass and tape, cover of fabric and leather

Description

A tri-fold portfolio of small etchings mounted in a case with an etching of San Miguel Chapel in an envelope in the center and seven small etchings on each side which have been matted into a single presentation matte. All of the images are of regional scenes such as the Museum of Art, the Palace of the Governors, the Plaza, houses, cliff dwellings, streetscapes, landscapes and Native Americans. The portfolio is in a black cover with red leather trim.

Dimensions

cover: 16 x 12 in. (40.6 x 30.5 cm)